“The media are, of course, to be used for the salvation and sanctification of believing Christians, But not only for professed followers of Christ. They are intended in God's providence to instruct and inspire "all mankind."

Never before have such opportunities existed for literally fulfilling the Master's commission to preach the Gospel to the whole human race. On Pentecost Sunday, people from all over the Mediterranean world miraculously received, the first public proclamation of the Gospel by the apostle Peter. Two millennia later, the Pentecostal phenomenon is now available on a universal scale beyond the wildest dreams of Peter's successors until our day.

The historic opportunity we now have of witnessing to Christ across the continents must be inspired by the holiness of the communicators. Their power to evangelize the multitude depends on their own union with God. They shall be as effective in bringing souls to Christ as they are themselves united with Christian faith and humility, and the practice of chastity. This is more than the obvious giving of good example. It is nothing less than a law of supernatural generation. Holiness is reproductive. Holy people reproduce themselves in the souls of those with whom they communicate.

What a glorious prospect lies ahead for Christianizing the world as we approach the twenty-first century! It all depends on how courageously those who evangelize through the media are themselves communicators of divine grace by their lives of heroic loyalty to Jesus Christ.”

Catholic Radio is Coming to Lansing!

The Diocese has asked for our assistance in bringing Catholic radio to Lansing. In order to make it possible, there is a need for prayer and financial support to get the operation moving. It is an opportunity for us to take part in a concrete way of evangelizing the people in our area through the power of radio and podcasts and help bring the truth and the good news to many souls. If you are able, please give it some thought in preparation for the coming weekend as we will be hosting Sean Breeden from Ave Maria Radio. He will be speaking at all the Masses here at St. Isidore and Holy Family the weekend of June 22nd & 23rd. He will be sharing some exciting news about our new Catholic radio station!

God love you, Fr. Anthony

Happy Father's Day!

SAINT OF THE MONTH - ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

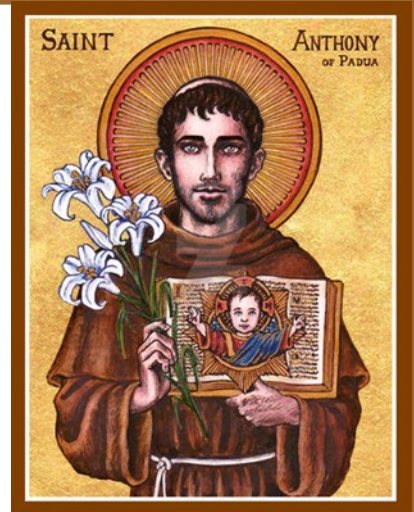

- Feast Day - June 13th

Did you enjoy the Bean and Escarole Soup to celebrate St. Anthony's feast day on June 13th?

Did you know that St. Anthony was once seen preaching to the fish and to the surprise of non-believers, a large crowd of fish had gathered to listen to him. (Pagans were not listening, thus, he preached to the fish)

St. Anthony is known as a marriage saint in Portugal, Spain, and Brazil because legends exist of him reconciling couples.

According to a story, St. Anthony's food was poisoned by non-believers who challenged him to eat the food anyway —which he did after blessing the food and coming out unharmed.
